

Pediatric MS and Related Disorders Update Meeting London 2016

Current Challenges in Pediatric Onset MS

Organized by UK-CID (UK Childhood Inflammatory Demyelination Group) in partnership with the International Pediatric Multiple Sclerosis Study Group (IPMSSG)

Tuesday, September 13 2016
33 Queen Square, London WC1N 3BG
8.45- 3.30

- 8.15 - 8.30 Registration
- 8.30-8:40 Welcome from the UK Childhood Inflammatory Demyelination Group
- 8.40-9.00 Welcome from IPMSSG and Highlights of Paediatric MS for 2015 -
2016: Dr. Tanuja Chitnis, Chair of IPMSSG Steering Committee
- 9.00 -10.30 SESSION 1: The Approach to Treatment fFilure
Chair: Dr. Naila Makhani
- 9.00-9.15 Introduction to current and new treatment options
Dr. Naila Makhani
- 9.15-9.45 CAMPATH and MAB:
Monitoring safety and prevention of complications (speaker tbc)
- 9.45– 10.15 Stem cell therapy – what does it mean for POMS in the future?
Prof. Paolo Muraro
- 10.15-10.30 Brief free communication
- 3 slides (5 min) max, submit before
-
- 10.30-11.00 Coffee
- 11.00-12.30 SESSION 2: The Mystery of MOG
Chair: Dr Cheryl Hemingway
- 11.05-11.25 MOG and demyelination (basic science)
Prof. Angela Vincent
- 11.25–11.45 MOG is clinical important
Dr. Jacqueline Palace
- 11.45-12.05 MOG is not important
Prof. Kevin Rostasy
- 12.05-12.25 Free Discussion
- 12.25 VOTE

- 12.30-12.45 Photo before lunch
- 12.45-13.45 Lunch
- 13.45-15.30 SESSION 3: How can we improve the care of children with neuroinflammation?
Chair: Prof. Ming Lim
- 13.45-14.15 Genetic white matter disorders – What can we learn?
Dr John Livingston
- 14.15-14.35 Towards a diagnostic algorithm for recurrent demyelination.
Dr. Yael Hacohen
- 14.35-14.50 Update of new clinical trial in Paediatric MS
Prof. E. Waubant
- 14.50-15.05 The role of MRI in clinical trials.
Prof. Brenda Banwell
- 15.05-15.30 A Registry: how can it help us?
Prof. Paul Matthews
- 15.30 close Dr. E. Wassmer

This meeting is made possible by financial support from:
Multiple Sclerosis International Federation
Multiple Sclerosis Society, UK
Multiple Sclerosis Trust
National MS Society (USA)